COLLEGE DEMOCRATS OF MARYLAND CONDEMNS TRUMP'S ELECTION DENIAL, STATEWIDE REPUBLICANS FOR STANDING BY

Maryland - November 23rd, 2020 - The College Democrats of Maryland is publicly urging Maryland College Republicans to denounce the undemocratic tactics used by President Trump and the GOP.

College Democrats of Maryland President Olivier Ambush, a Towson University junior, implores the following organizations to immediately join Governor Larry Hogan in condemning the President's attempt to overthrow the fair election held on November 3rd, 2020:

- Maryland Federation of College Republicans
- Towson College Republicans
- Frostburg State University College Republicans
- Goucher Republicans
- Hood College Republicans
- John Hopkins University College Republicans
- Loyola College Republicans
- St. Mary's College Republicans
- Salisbury University College Republicans
- Stevenson University College Republicans
- University of Maryland College Republicans
- Washington College Republicans

President Trump lost the electoral college in a 306-232 victory for President-elect Joseph Biden. The American people have made it overwhelmingly clear that President Trump is not fit to lead the country for a second term.

The College Democrats of Maryland (CDMD) is the state arm of the College Democrats of America, a Democratic National Committee organization. CDMD has represented Maryland College Democrats for years and continues to fight for student voices to be heard, increase student voter turnout, and promote the values of the Democratic Party.
